Summer US College Student Director Positions

DIRECTOR ROLE

As a US College student director, you will be in charge of helping prepare your team in the spring, as well as leading and providing feedback to coaches on site in Vietnam. In addition to helping share information and monitoring timely progress of the coaches through pre-departure steps, the director will play a key role in setting the tone for the group both before and during the camps. As you remember, coaches go through a roller coaster of emotions, and everything is new. Having already experienced Vietnam and the various aspects of the camps, the directors are a valuable resource in answering questions and providing leadership that helps create a positive camp culture that maximizes the coaches' growth and effectiveness in contributing to the kids.

PROGRAM FINANCING

Because we do not have agreements in place with most universities to provide support for this position, if you are selected to be a director, you will be expected to raise $5,100 for the Coach for College program, slightly reduced from the normal combined school contribution and participant fundraising total of $5,180 for coaches. The fundraising total can be lowered in the cases when a director is able to purchase the flight to Vietnam using frequent flyer miles. The Coach for College program will provide you with access to program brochures, CFC letterhead and videos, as well as setting up a personalized online donation page, which your donors can use to make online contributions to your fundraising. To view last year's fundraising website, go to www.coachforcollege.org and click on "American Student-Athlete Fundraising." Effective fundraising is an essential part of your participation in the program. The success of the program is dependent upon private donations and each director and coach is expected to meet or exceed his or her fundraising goal.

ELIGIBILITY

College Student Directors will be restricted to student-athletes who have participated in previous Coach for College programs. Both current undergraduates and those who have graduated are eligible to apply. NOTE: Student-athletes who participated in previous programs are usually not eligible for their school's funding to participate again as coaches in the upcoming summer. Past directors, however, are welcome to come lead a team again.
